Mr.P.Gopalkrishnan i/b. M.V.Kini & Co. for

CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR, J

DATE : NOVEMBER 21, 2007.

P.C. :

1. After hearing Counsel for both the sides for sometime, Counsel for the Respondents stated that the Court may not go into details of the correctness of the view taken by the Industrial Tribunal in the impugned Judgment, as the Respondents will not require the Petitioners to comply with the interim direction given by the Tribunal in terms of the impugned Order, as passed. He further submits that no reasons be recorded, as it may affect the outcome of the main proceedings, which are pending before the Industrial Tribunal, one way or the other.

2. In the circumstances, by consent, this Writ

Petition is disposed of with clear understanding that the Respondent-workmen will not take benefit or insist for enforcement of Order dated 16th June, 2006, which is the subject matter of challenge in the present Writ Petition.

3. At the same time, it is made clear that the parties agree to abide by the arrangement operating as per Order dated 12th December, 2002 passed by the Division Bench of this Court in Writ Petition No.566 of 1998 in particular clause 2 of paragraph-4 at page 79 of the paper book. Petition disposed of on the above terms.

4. Needless to observe that the Tribunal will keep in mind that the hearing of the main proceedings has already been ordered to be expeditiously disposed of by Division Bench of this Court under Order dated 12th December, 2002.
